Compendious or briefe examination, A, . . . (Continued, 1.)

The authorship of this tract is a vexed question. Anthony à Wood, in Fasti Oxonienses, under a notice of William Stafford (1554-1612), says, "Besides this Will. Stafford, was another . . . before him in time, author of A compendium, or brief examination of certain ordinary complaints . . . ." Later Farmer attributed it to the younger Stafford. But William Lambarde possessed a manuscript copy in which he wrote, "Note that this book was published in print . . . by one W. S. in the yeare 1581; whearas it was long since penned by Sr Thomas Smythe (as some say), or, Mr Jhon Hales (as others thinke) . . . And I . . . have long had this copie of it which I caused to be written out . . . 1565." Internal evidence seems to fix 1549 as the date of the original composition.

The use of Shakespeare's name in this edition (replacing W. S.) is manifestly an error, as he was but seventeen years old when the first edition was published.

A note by William Lambarde on one of the manuscript copies still existing (made in 1565) says this was "penned by Sr Thomas Smythe . . . or, Mr Jhon Hales . . . ." W. S., Gentleman, who claimed the authorship of the first printed edition (1581) seems thus to have been only an editor. The initials have been thought to be those of William Stafford, 1554-1612, or an older William Stafford. The use of Shakespeare's name on the title-page of the second edition was a manifest error.
